§2 CORPORATE INFORMATION

2.1 Brief analysis of the overall operating conditions of the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") during the reporting period

There was a slow growth in investments in equipment by the global telecommunications industry during the reporting period, although performances varied from region to region. The progress of commercial deployment of LTE networks was gaining pace, as national broadband strategies adopted by various nations across the globe continued to drive the construction of wireline broadband access networks, while modernisation upgrades of wireless networks and LTE network construction were driving the construction of transmission networks. Market demand for smart terminals continued to increase. In the domestic market, the domestic telecommunications sector reported relatively fast growth in equipment investment mainly with the benefit of large-scale TD-LTE deployment and the construction of ancillary facilities, with wireless, broadband and transmission equipment remaining in focus. The Group worked in close tandem with the technological preferences and network construction plans of carriers to capitalise on market opportunities and consolidate its market shares. Internationally, the Group continued to focus its efforts on major populous nations and leading carriers, while vigorously enhancing market development in key sectors of government and enterprise networks.

During the reporting period, the Group reported operating revenue of RMB18.093 billion, representing a 2.79% decrease compared to the same period last year. Net profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company amounted to RMB205 million, representing a 35.87% growth over the same period last year. Basic earnings per share amounted to RMB0.06.

Looking ahead to the next reporting period, equipment investment by the telecommunications industry is expected to be focused on broadband conversion of wireless and wireline networks and the construction of ancillary facilities. The Group will commit its efforts to product innovation and solution-based operations with a strong focus on mainstream products and improve R&D efficiency. The strategy for populous nations and mainstream carriers will be reinforced, as we seek to concentrate on markets in which we claim strengths while vigorously expanding in the government, enterprise and service segments. The Group will continue to implement the settlement system to facilitate resource management and control, so as to refine cost management and enhance operating efficiency.

Note 1: Net assets per share attributable to shareholders of the listed company as at the end of the first quarter of 2013 and the end of 2012 were calculated on the basis of the total share capital at the end of the period less 2,536,742 lapsed Subject Shares under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company;

Note 2: Net cash flow from operating activities per share for the first quarter of 2013 was calculated on the basis of the total share capital at the end of the period less 2,536,742 lapsed Subject Shares under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company. The corresponding indicator for the first quarter of 2012 was calculated on the basis of the total share capital at the end of the period less 9,125,893 restricted shares remaining in lock-up;

Note 3: Basic earnings per share for the reporting period was calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of ordinary shares, namely the total share capital at the end of the period less 2,536,742 lapsed Subject Shares under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company. The corresponding indicator for the first quarter of 2012 was calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of ordinary shares, namely the total share capital at the end of the period less 9,125,893 restricted shares remaining in lock-up;

Note 4: As certain Subject Share quotas under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company have given rise to 0 and 6,874,194 potentially dilutive ordinary shares for the reporting period and the first quarter of 2012, respectively, therefore diluted earnings per share has been calculated on the basis of basic earnings per share taking into account the said factors.

3.2.4.7 Material litigation and arbitration during the reporting period

There was no material litigation or arbitration of the Group occurring during the reporting period. Details of the progress of immaterial litigation and arbitration proceedings occurring prior to and other litigation and arbitration proceedings occurring during the reporting period are set out in the following:

1. On 28 April 2011, the Company and ZTE France SASU (“ZTE France”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a statement of claim from the District Court of Paris, France, according to which a lawsuit has been filed by Huawei Technologies Co., Ltd. (“Huawei”), claiming that the data card products of the Company and ZTE France have infringed upon its patent and demanding the Company and ZTE France to discontinue such act of infringement and pay damages in the amount of EUR500,000. In respect of the patent which was the subject of Huawei’s litigation and other related patents of the same class, ZTE France filed a lawsuit with the District Court of Paris, France to claim the invalidity of the patent. The aforesaid two cases have been merged for trial purposes, and on 28 March 2013, the District Court of Paris ruled to reject all litigation claims of Huawei and ordered Huawei to pay a compensation of EUR100,000 to the Company and ZTE France. At the same time, Huawei’s patent which was the subject of the litigation was ruled “invalid” on the grounds of “lack of creativity.”

On 9 May 2011, ZTE Deutschland GmbH (“ZTE Deutschland”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a provisional injunction order against ZTE Deutschland in respect of “labelled data cards” awarded by the District Court of Hamburg, Germany based on an application by Huawei. For details please refer to the “Announcement on Litigation” of the Company dated 12 May 2011. In response to the aforesaid provisional injunction order, ZTE Deutschland had filed a dissent with the District Court of Hamburg, Germany. On 1 October 2011, the Company received a ruling of the District Court of Hamburg, Germany in favor of Huawei’s application for the said provisional injunction order. On 27 October 2011, ZTE Deutschland appealed to the District High Court of Hamburg, Germany and the case is currently pending trial. Such provisional injunction order does not have any impact on the current business of the Company. On 27 June 2011, ZTE Deutschland received a statement of claim served by the District Court of Hamburg, Germany, pursuant to which Huawei officially filed a lawsuit of trademark infringement in respect of “labelled data cards” with the court. On 25 July 2011, ZTE Deutschland submitted a defense to the court. On 23 November 2011, the court ruled to suspend the litigation procedure for the case of trademark infringement and to arrange hearing pending judgement in respect of the appeal against the provisional injunction order.

In May 2011 and May 2012, ZTE Deutschland and the Company respectively received statements of claim filed by Huawei to the court of Dusseldorf, Germany, claiming that ZTE Deutschland and the Company had infringed 4 of its patents. The amount in dispute for this case was estimated by Huawei at EUR1 million. On 21 March 2013, the court rejected all allegations of Huawei in connection with the infringement on its EP 2033335 patent by the Company’s LTE systems and terminals. As of now, the case for the other three patents are pending court trial or judgement.

In May 2012, ZTE Deutschland received statements of claim filed by Huawei to the court of Mannheim, Germany, claiming that ZTE Deutschland had infringed its patent. The amount in dispute for this case was estimated by Huawei at EUR1 million. On 15 March 2013, the court of Mannheim, Germany made a judgement to reject all allegations of Huawei in connection with the infringement by the LTE terminals of ZTE Deutschland, but ruled that the LTE systems sold by ZTE Deutschland in Germany had infringed on “a derived encryption function” of the said patent. In respect of the infringement ruled by the judgement, the Company is actively preparing to file an appeal with the High Court of Karlsruhe. As such patent is not used in the relevant products currently sold by the Company, the litigation will not have any substantial impact on the local sales of the Company.

On 12 November, 21 November and 2 December 2011, respectively, ZTE Hungary Kft. (“ZTE Hungary”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received statements of claim filed by Huawei with the Metropolitan Court of Hungary alleging infringement of 4 of its patents by ZTE Hungary, although no specific amount of compensation was named by Huawei in the statements of claim. ZTE Hungary submitted defenses to the court on 12 January and 1 February 2012, respectively. In respect of the 4 patents which is the subject of Huawei’s litigation, ZTE Hungary filed an application to the Patent Bureau of Hungary to claim the invalidity of the patent. As at the end of the reporting period, the court ruled to suspend trial in respect of all of the 4 patents under litigation.

In addition to instituting lawsuits in other countries against the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries for infringements of its patent rights or trademarks, Huawei also filed a lawsuit with Shenzhen Intermediate People’s Court (“Shenzhen Intermediate Court”) in 2011 alleging the Company’s infringement of 4 of its patent rights and demanding the Company to discontinue such infringement and pay an amount of compensation. The Company responded actively by filing a case with Shenzhen Intermediate Court alleging Huawei’s infringement of 3 patent rights of the Company, demanding Huawei to discontinue such infringement and pay an amount of compensation. As of now, trials of the aforesaid domestic cases have commenced. Shenzhen Intermediate Court has ruled to reject one of the aforesaid applications by Huawei for lawsuit on infringements of patent rights and such ruling has taken effect.

Based on the progress of the case, the Directors of the Company are of the opinion that the aforesaid case will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group for the current period.

2. In November 2012, ZTE DO BRAZIL LTDA (“ZTE Brazil”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, filed an application with the Civil Court of Brasilia to freeze the assets of a Brazilian company on the grounds that the said Brazilian company had failed to honour purchase payments of approximately BRL31,353,700 (equivalent to approximately RMB99,391,200). On 7 February 2013, the Civil Court of Brasilia ruled to suspend the freezing of the assets of such Brazilian company on the grounds that such company was not currently involved in any significant debt dispute with any other companies and that there was no indication that it would be subject to bankruptcy.

On 30 November 2012, Civil Court No. 15 of Sao Paulo City, Brazil notified ZTE Brazil that the said Brazilian company had filed a lawsuit with the said court alleging that ZTE Brazil had committed fraud and negligence in the course of cooperation and demanding compensation for direct and indirect losses in the aggregate amount of approximately BRL82,974,500 (equivalent to approximately RMB263 million). The Company has appointed an external legal counsel to conduct active defense in respect of the said case.

Based on the progress of the case, the Directors of the Company are of the opinion that the aforesaid case will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group for the current period.

Note: The book exchange rate of the Company as at 31 March 2013 was adopted, namely BRL1: RMB3.1700.

The book value of the investment as at the end of the reporting period was approximately HKD201.5 million, equivalent to approximately RMB162.7 million based on the median exchange rate for Hong Kong Dollar versus RMB quoted by the People’s Bank of China on 29 March 2013 (HKD1: RMB0.80757).

(2) Details in investment in securities

A. Shareholdings in Nationz Technologies Inc. (“Nationz Technologies”)

Nationz Technologies, a company with the equity investment of the Company, issued its shares under initial public offering (“IPO”) and was listed on the GEM Board of the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on 30 April 2010. On 28 April 2011, Nationz Technologies announced that a period of 12 months had lapsed since its IPO listing. The 54,400,000 shares in Nationz Technologies held by the Company (after the implementation of the 2010 profit distribution and capitalization of capital reserve plans of Nationz Technologies) would be available for circulation as from 3 May 2011. Pursuant to the “Resolution on the Proposed Disposal of Shares in Nationz Technologies, Inc.” passed at the Nineteenth Meeting of the Fifth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 17 May 2011, the disposal of shares in Nationz Technologies at an appropriate timing and a reasonable price range was approved.

As at the end of the reporting period, the Company currently held 3,125,800 shares in Nationz Technologies (accounting for approximately 1.15% of the total share capital of Nationz Technologies), all of which were unrestricted circulating shares. As the Company does not exercise significant influence over the operating activities of Nationz Technologies, shares held by the Company have been accounted for as trading financial assets for accounting purposes and investment gains and profit/loss from fair value change have been measured at fair value.

B. Holdings of China All Access convertible bonds

Pursuant to the “Resolution on the subscription for shares and convertible bonds of China All Access (Holdings) Limited by ZTE HK” considered and passed at the Thirty-sixth Meeting of the Fifth Session of the Board of the Company held on 16 November 2012, ZTE HK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into the Agreement on the Subscription for Shares and Convertible Bonds of CHINA ALL ACCESS (HOLDINGS) LIMITED with China All Access on 16 November 2012. On 15 January 2013, ZTE HK completed subscription for convertible bonds with a principal amount of HKD201.5 million issued by China All Access for a total cash consideration of HKD201.5 million. As at the end of the reporting period, the Company held convertible bonds of China All Access in the amount of HKD201.5 million. The convertible bonds held by the Company have been classified as held-to-maturity investments for accounting purposes and interest income arising from the convertible bonds has been included in current profit and loss.

2. The holding of equity interests in other listed companies

(1) Shareholdings in Huizhou Speed Wireless Technology Co., Ltd. (“Speed”)

On 28 February 2012, the IPO application of Speed, a company in which the Company held an indirect equity interest, was approved at the 12th working meeting of 2012 of the GEM Board Issue Approval Committee under CSRC. Speed was listed on the GEM Board of the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on 8 June 2012.

As at the end of the reporting period, the Company and Shenzhen ZTE Capital Management Company Limited held in aggregate 31% equity interests in Shenzhen Zhonghe Chunsheng Partnership Private Equity Fund I (“Zhonghe Chunsheng Fund”). Zhonghe Chunsheng Fund was a partnership reported in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. Zhonghe Chunsheng Fund held 2 million shares in Speed, accounting for 2.14% of the total share capital of Speed.

(2) Shareholdings in China All Access

Pursuant to the Agreement on the Subscription for Shares and Convertible Bonds of CHINA ALL ACCESS (HOLDINGS) LIMITED entered into by ZTE HK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, with China All Access on 16 November 2012, ZTE HK subscribed for 112 million shares allotted and issued by China All Access on 15 January 2013 for a total cash consideration of HKD201.5 million.

As at the end of the reporting period, the Company held 112 million shares in China All Access, accounting for approximately 8.43% of the total share capital of China All Access. Such shares are subject to a lock-up period of one year (from 15 January 2013 to 15 January 2014).

3.6 Derivative Investments

Principal terms of derivative investment contracts (include but not limited to: the source of funds, parties to the contract, investment shares, investment period, product types, whether litigation is involved, whether there are disguised utilization of issue proceeds and review of the investment by competent decision making authorities)

For the first quarter of 2013, the Company conducted derivative investment using its internal funds through either ZTE or ZTE HK as the sole signatory. Contract type was value-protection derivatives, including USD forwards, Euro forwards and USD interest rate swaps. The investment term of USD forwards and Euro forwards was 1 year or less. The investment term of USD interest rate swaps matched the medium- and long-term debts of ZTE HK. No investments in fixed-income derivatives were made during the reporting period.

The derivative investment quota for the first quarter of 2013 was considered and passed by the Twenty-seventh Meeting of the Fifth session of the Board of Directors and 2011 Annual General Meeting of the Company. For details, please refer to the “Announcement of Resolutions of the Twenty-seventh Meeting of the Fifth Session of the Board of Directors” published by the Company on 28 March 2012 and “Announcement on the Resolutions of the 2011 Annual General Meeting” published by the Company on 25 May 2012. The derivative investments made by the Company have not been involved in litigation or disguised applications of issue proceeds.

Risk analysis and control measures (including but not limited to market risks, liquidity risks, credit risks, operational risks and legal risks) in respect of derivative positions during the reporting period

The Company conducted value-protection derivative investments during the first quarter of 2013. The major risks and control measures are discussed as follows:

1. Market risks: Gains or losses arising from the difference between the exchange rate for settlement of value-protection derivative investment contracts and the exchange rate prevailing on the maturity date will be accounted for as gains or losses on revaluation for each accounting period during the effective period of the value-protection derivative investments. Effective gains or losses shall be represented by the accumulative gains or losses on revaluation on the maturity date.
2. Liquidity risks: The value-protection derivative investments were based on the Company's budget of foreign exchange income and expenditure and these investments matched the Company's actual foreign exchange income and expenditure to ensure sufficient fund for settlement on completion. Therefore, their effect on the Company's current assets was relatively small.
3. Credit risks: The counterparties to the derivative investment trades of the Company are banks with sound credit ratings and long-standing business relationships with the Company and therefore the transactions were basically free from performance risks.
4. Other risks: Failure of personnel in charge to operate derivative investments in accordance with stipulated procedures or fully understand information regarding derivatives may result in operational risks in actual operation; obscure terms in the trade contract may result in legal risks.
5. Control measures: The Company addressed legal risks by entering into contracts with clear and precise terms with counterparty banks and strictly enforcing its risk management system. The Company has formulated the "Risk Control and Information Disclosure System relating to Investments in Derivatives" that contains specific provisions for the risk control, review procedures and subsequent management of derivative investments, so that derivative investments will be effectively regulated and risks relating to derivative investments will be duly controlled.

Market prices or fair-value change of invested derivatives during the reporting period, including the specific methods, assumptions and parameters adopted in the analysis of the fair values of the derivatives.	Investment gains from derivatives during the reporting period were recognised by the Company. Total gains recognised for the reporting period amounted to RMB22.51 million, comprising gains from fair value change of RMB79.04 million and recognized investment losses of RMB56.53 million. The calculation of the fair value was based on forward exchange rates quoted by Reuters on a balance sheet date in line with the maturity date of the product.
Statement on whether the accounting policy and accounting audit principles for derivatives for the reporting period were significantly different from the previous reporting period	There was no significant change in the Company’s accounting policy and accounting audit principles for derivatives for the reporting period as compared to that of the previous reporting period.
Specific opinion of Independent Non-executive Directors on the Company’s derivative investments and risk control	Independent Non-executive Directors’ Opinion: The Company conducted value protection derivative investments by using financial products to enhance its financial stability, so as to mitigate the impact of exchange-rate volatility on its assets, liabilities and profitability. The Company has conducted stringent internal assessment of its derivative investments made and has established corresponding regulatory mechanisms and dedicated staff. The counterparties with which the Company and its subsidiaries enter into contracts for derivative investments are organizations with sound operations and good credit standing. We are of the view that the derivative investments made by the Company and its subsidiaries are closely related to their day-to-day operational requirements and in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

3.7 Development of internal control in the first quarter of 2013

The work of the internal control development project team during the reporting period was mainly concerned with the review and assessment of the Company's internal control in 2012, rectification of any deficiencies identified and the output of related documentations. Specific tasks completed are set out as follows:

1. The internal control development project team completed the "Report of the Company on the Implementation of the 2012 Internal Control Plan" and presented the same to the Company's Audit Committee on 25 January 2013;
2. The internal control development project team actively collaborated with the independent auditors' work on internal control audit to ensure smooth operation of the Company's internal control audit;
3. The Audit Department of the Company conducted a full assessment of the Company's internal control development in 2012 in accordance with the Rules for Corporate Internal Control and Supplementary Guidelines for Corporate Internal Control, and completed the "Self-assessment Report on 2012 Internal Control of the Company" in association with the internal control development project team;
4. An internal control inspection group for human resources was set up by the internal control development project team to conduct risk assessment and internal control inspection in respect of the systems and process flows of various operational modules, such as human resource strategy and planning, recruitment and selection, personnel appraisal, staff training, performance management, remuneration and reward, and staff resignation, etc.

* Basic earnings per share for the reporting period was calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of ordinary shares, namely the total share capital at the end of the period less 2,536,742 lapsed Subject Shares under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company. The corresponding indicator for the first quarter of 2012 was calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of ordinary shares, namely the total share capital at the end of the period less 9,125,893 restricted shares remaining in lock-up;

 As certain Subject Share quotas under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company have given rise to 0 and 6,874,194 potentially dilutive ordinary shares for the reporting period and the first quarter of 2012, respectively, therefore diluted earnings per share has been calculated on the basis of basic earnings per share taking into account the said factors.
