Nomination Committee Working Rules

Chapter I - General Provisions

Article 1 - In order to regulate the appointment of the Directors and senior management personnel, optimize the composition of the Board of Directors (“Board”) and to improve its corporate governance structure, the Company has set up a Nomination Committee under the Board and formulated these implementation rules (“Rules”) in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China, Corporate Governance Standards for Listed Companies, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Listing Rules”), the Articles of Association of ZTE Corporation (“Articles”) and other pertinent regulations.

Article 2 – The Nomination Committee of the Board is a specialized working body set up by the Board pursuant to a resolution of the general meeting, being mainly responsible for studying the criteria and procedures for selecting Directors and senior management personnel of the Company and making recommendations to the Board in respect thereof. References to “Directors” in these Rules shall include the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Directors and Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company; “senior management personnel” shall include the President, Executive Vice President, Senior Vice President, Board Secretary, Chief Financial Officer and any other persons designated or recognised by the Board of Directors as needed from time to time.

Chapter II – Composition of the Committee

Article 3 – The Nomination Committee shall comprise seven Directors, with the majority of them being Independent Non-executive Directors.

Article 4 – Members of the Nomination Committee shall be nominated by the Board Chairman, more than half of the Independent Non-executive Directors or one-third of all Directors and shall be appointed through election by the Board.

Article 5 – The Nomination Committee shall have one convener responsible for presiding over the work of the Committee. The convener must be elected among Committee members who are Independent Non-executive Directors.

Article 6 – The term of office for a member of the Nomination Committee shall be concurrent with the term of his/her directorship. A Committee member may be re-elected for appointment upon the conclusion of his/her term of office. A Committee member shall be automatically disqualified as such if during his/her term of office he/she ceases to be a Director of the Company, and the Committee shall make up the number of Committee members in accordance with provisions set out in Articles 3 to 5 above.

Chapter III - Scope of Authority

Article 7 – The principal duties and scope of authority of the Nomination Committee shall be:

(I) to review and make recommendations to the Board in respect of the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge and experience) of the Board based on the state of business operations, asset size and shareholding structure of the Company;

(II) to study the criteria and procedures for selecting Directors and senior management personnel of the Company and to make recommendations to the Board in respect thereof;

(III) to conduct extensive searches for qualified candidates for Directors and senior management personnel;

(IV) to assess the independence of independent non-executive directors;

(V) to conduct examination of candidates for Directors and senior management personnel and to make recommendations as to the appointment or re-appointment or succession planning for Directors;

(VI) to give due regard to the benefits of diversity on the Board against objective criteria in reference to the Board Diversity Policy (Annex I) when performing duties set out in paragraphs (I), (II), (III) and (V);

(VII) to review the Board Diversity Policy as appropriate and to review the measurable objectives under the Board Diversity Policy and the progress of attainment, so as to ensure effective implementation; and

(VIII) to deal with other matters as authorized by the Board of the Company.

Article 8 – The Nomination Committee shall be accountable to the Board and proposals of the Committee shall be submitted to the Board for consideration and determination.

Chapter IV – Decision-making Process

Article 9 – The Nomination Committee shall study the election criteria, selection process and term of office of the Directors and senior management personnel of the Company in accordance with provisions of pertinent laws and regulations and the Articles and taking into account the actual conditions of the Company, formulate resolutions and submit the same for Board approval and implement accordingly.

Article 10 –The selection process for Directors and senior management personnel shall be as follows:

(I) The Nomination Committee shall proactively exchange views with relevant departments of the Company to study the need of the Company for new Directors and senior management personnel;
